WASHINGTON, January 5.

SENATE.

The Senate met at 12 M.

Mr. Sumner presented the petition of colored citizens of Washington, asking the right to vote.

Mr. Wilson introduced a bill to repeal the provisions of the act of 1862 relative to the manner of swearing a full complement of witnesses. It is expected that Mr. Johnson will be impeached at this session, and sufficient time to complete the trial, even if testimony upon the articles should be taken by the Senate. The Judiciary Committee will be ordered, and at the same time the Managers on the part of the House will be appointed as follows: Wilson, of Massachusetts, Chairman; Stevens, of Pennsylvania; Morrill, of Vermont; Morris, of Ohio; Bingham, of Ohio; Boutwell, of Massachusetts, and Logan, of Illinois.

The Senate then adjourned.

HOUSE.

Mr. Stevens moved the appointment of a committee to wait upon the President and inform him that the House was ready to receive any communication he might have to make.

Mr. Boutwell moved to amend by adding the Senate.

Mr. Stevens accepted the amendment.

Mr. Boutwell moved the appointment of a committee of seven
